have succeeded, in all probability and governor Gonzalez would not be a prisoner. In the arrest of the inspector the federal army authorities came into possession of important documents alleged to have been signed by the former governor, Abraham Gonalez, and addressed to friends of the executive in the Guerrero district calling mon them to rise in arms against the Huerta government.

Labansat, after his arrest was put through the 'fourth degree'—that is, he was taken from his cell in the pententiary by a small detail of soldiers, to the pententiary grounds back of the walls and stood on an elevation. At his back was a huge hole from which the dirt stood on had been removed. Labansat was asked by the captain in charge if he had anything to say. The inspector replied that he knew of nothing. The official ordered the firling squad to their their places facing Labansat. 'Resdy' Aim' and the officer looked at the unfortunate man. He was on his knees in a supplicative attitude. 'I will tell all,' he said, and he did, and was then led back to his cell.

In the afternoon between 4 and 5 the army executed a coup. At the federal palace a company formed of sergeauts and corporals marched to the state palace and surrounded it. Only the women employes were allowed to leave the building. Following close behind the company walked Gen. Gordillo Escudero, who, with his staff, went immediately to the governor's room, where he found Gen.
